

Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs

I AM NOT
INVISIBLE

I AM NOT
INVISIBLE

I AM NOT
INVISIBLE

I AM NOT
INVISIBLE

I AM NOT
INVISIBLE

Join us for an exhibit unveiling

I AM NOT
INVISIBLE

A TRAVELING EXHIBIT FROM
THE WISCONSIN VETERANS
LOCATED IN MADISON, WI | WWW.WISVET.ORG

A TRAVELING EXHIBIT FROM
THE WISCONSIN VETERANS
LOCATED IN MADISON, WI | WWW.WISVET.ORG

A TRAVELING EXHIBIT FROM
THE WISCONSIN VETERANS
LOCATED IN MADISON, WI | WWW.WISVET.ORG

A TRAVELING EXHIBIT FROM
THE WISCONSIN VETERANS
LOCATED IN MADISON, WI | WWW.WISVET.ORG

A TRAVELING EXHIBIT FROM
THE WISCONSIN VETERANS
LOCATED IN MADISON, WI | WWW.WISVET.ORG

"I understood what the regulations were and I was accused of misconduct, guilty of telling the truth, honest and vulnerable. It was because I was a woman." —Sharon Shaheen

"General Adamson said, 'Why there be a woman Aide de Camp?' I interviewed for the job... I became the first woman Aide de Camp to a Commanding General in the history of the Armed Forces." —Gay Leigh Mundy

Anna Robertson was a member of the Women's Army Corps (the 6888th Central Postal Directory) the first battalion of African American women to go overseas during World War II.

"I worked on the AV-8A, AV-8B Harrier as an air conditioning, ejection seats, and oxygen systems technician. I was the first female in my field." —Yolanda Medina

"...the guys were all disappearing. There were no young people around, just old people, and so I went to Minneapolis and just enlisted, it's that simple." —Rose Kerstetter

Wisconsin State Capitol Rotunda
Thursday, NOV. 7, 2019 12:00 PM

ON EXHIBIT
THROUGH NOVEMBER
15th