71st Anniversary of VJ Day and the End of WWII

Seventy-one years ago on August 15, 1945, World War II drew to a close with Japanese surrender.

Securing Japan's surrender and concluding World War II came at the price of many. More than 332,000 Wisconsinites served in World War II. More than 8,400 of those were killed in action, with an additional 13,500 wounded. That's just a small fraction compared to the total number of U.S. residents who served, died and were wounded – more than 100,000 American personnel died in the Pacific Theater.

On August 6, 1945, an atomic bomb was dropped on Hiroshima by the B-29 bomber Enola Gay, searing the center of the city for a fraction of a second with a heat of 300,000 degrees centigrade. Three days later, a second bomb was dropped on Nagasaki. On August 10th, Tokyo announced that Japan was willing to surrender. World War II was over.

Meanwhile, as the news of the Japanese surrender swept the Allied countries, swarms of exuberant people flooded the streets staging impromptu celebrations all over the world. These festivities lasted for days and have been forever captured in pictures such as the famous Alfred Eisenstaedt picture for Life Magazine of a uniformed sailor kissing a nurse in Times Square.

Japanese Emperor Hirohito, accepting the Allies' Potsdam ultimatum, declared an official end to the fighting on August 14, 1945. The first official day without war with Japan, August 15th, was quickly dubbed "V-J Day" at home in the U.S. to celebrate the victory over Japan. The official surrender ceremony took place on September 2, 1945 aboard the American battleship USS Missouri in Tokyo Bay, presided over by General Douglas MacArthur.

The 71st Anniversary of V-J Day is not only a celebration of the end of the most destructive war in human history, but is also an opportunity to remember the debt of gratitude we owe to our veterans for the price they paid for our freedom. To this day, we enjoy the benefits brought about by the service and sacrifices of our veterans.

Korean War Veterans Recognized You Are Not Forgotten

Today, King is home to nearly 700 veterans and dependents whose military service ranges from WWII to the current War on Terrorism. The era with the largest number of veterans is Vietnam at 222 followed by 136 WWII Veterans, 133 Korean War Veterans, 5 Gulf War Veterans, and 1 Operation Enduring Freedom Veteran.

On Sunday, July 31st the Wisconsin Veterans Home at King, paid a special tribute to our Korea War Veterans, a recognition intended to let them know they are not forgotten. Each one was given a beautiful Korean War ribbon, thanked for their service, and treated to entertainment in the park.

As Volunteer Coordinator, Amber Nikolai made her way through the park thanking each veteran for their service to this great country, letting them know their service has not been forgotten. She reported one veteran, looked at her and stated with a smile, “This is the first time I have ever been thanked or given anything for my service in Korea.”

CASUALTIES OF THE KOREAN WAR

The Korean War was relatively short but exceptionally bloody. Nearly 5 million people died. More than half of these—about 10 percent of Korea’s prewar population—were civilians. (This rate of civilian casualties was higher than World War II’s and Vietnam’s.) Almost 40,000 Americans died in action in Korea, and more than 100,000 were wounded. To put this into perspective the American casualties were enough to wipe out a city, i.e Oshkosh, WI. To learn more about the the Korean War, often referred to as the “Forgotten War” visit (www.history.com/topics/korean-war).

We must never forget and make every effort to thank those who have served and sacrificed. Every veteran deserves to be thanked for their service!

50th Anniversary invitation spurs large donation!

The Marine Corps League from the Columbus, Beaver Dam and Sun Prairie area donated $2,000 to buy items at Walmart in Beaver Dam for the Wisconsin Veterans Home at King. Len Diels, a Marine from Columbus, spearheaded the effort. It all started when Len and his wife Gen received an invitation to the 50th wedding anniversary of their cousins David and Jane Rahn from Sun Prairie. The Rahns requested no gifts but did say they were making a donation to the Veterans Home in honor of their anniversary and invited anyone to join them. Gift cards, checks and 31 boxes of items were delivered to King.

HELP WANTED!

Welcome Salute Volunteers are NEEDED!

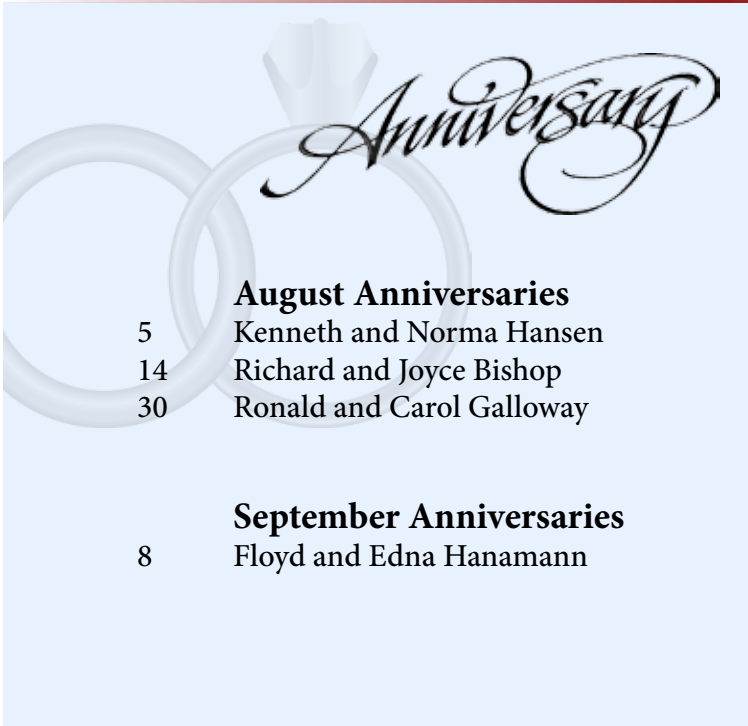

The Welcome Salute is a program you may have heard about which started a few months ago at the Wisconsin Veterans Home at King. It is a program which offers new members an opportunity to get to know each other, current members, volunteers, and to learn a little bit more about the King campus.

When first coming to King, it is fair to say, one's impression may be that it is a big place with a lot of people to meet, places to go, and things to become familiar with. The Welcome Salute was initiated to assist with making the move to King an easier transition with a more welcoming environment.

So what is the Welcome Salute all about? Within a couple of weeks of being admitted to the Veterans Home at King, new members will receive an invitation from a current member or volunteer to attend the next program. The program takes place every other Thursday in the Marden Library from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. On the morning of the Welcome Salute, a member or volunteer will come directly to the new member's room to personally escort them to the Library, so there are no worries for the new member to try to find the location on their own. Coffee and snacks are provided while we go around the room making introductions. Each member is presented with a ribbon honoring their service specific to the branch in which they served. From the Library's meet and greet the new members are taken on a personalized tour of the campus by a volunteer. The new member is able to direct where they want to go and what they want to see. Once the tour is completed, the volunteer escorts the new member back to their room. If the new member would prefer to skip the tour and go directly to their room, they are able to do that as well.

If you would like to volunteer and become involved, please call Amber Nikolai at 715.258.4247.

God's Election

2016 is a Presidential election year. Beginning in February, our country went through the primary voting process. Ultimately the candidates were narrowed down until only two remained. In July, both the Republican and Democratic Parties held their national conventions. As a result, Donald Trump and Hillary Clinton became the respective candidates, along with their running mates Mike Pence and Tim Kaine. Beginning in August, and culminating on Tuesday November 8th, the candidates will be campaigning for your support, giving reasons why you should vote for them rather than for their opponent.

Unfortunately during campaigns, the language and rhetoric is sometimes not all that pleasant. Often we hear name calling and slanderous comments by the candidates who seem to enjoy pointing out each other's faults more than highlighting their strengths and telling us their plans for our nation. While I don't appreciate much of what happens during campaigns or agree with everything that the Republicans and Democrats – Trump or Clinton – say, propose or promise, I am still grateful that I live in a nation where we as citizens have the right to choose our leaders. We are blessed to have a voice in our government and live in a country where the transition of power from one administration to another happens through elections rather than by revolutions, chaos or bloodshed. I thank our Founding Fathers and our veterans for defining and preserving our freedoms, liberties and privileges, including our right to vote.

While watching the election process unfold, I am reminded that God also holds elections. By definition, an election is the choosing of someone or something for a position or a purpose. In the Bible the words "elect", "election" and "chosen" are found a combined total of 145 times. Most often they are used in reference to God's act of choosing something or somebody for a special favor, a task, or to receive salvation. Entire nations are chosen by God for His blessing. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people whom He has chosen as His heritage! (Psalm 33:12). I believe our country is one of those chosen and blessed lands. God elected the nation of Israel to be the recipient of His grace and favor. The Lord your God has chosen you to be a people for His treasured possession, out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth ... because the Lord loves you and is keeping the promise that He made to your fathers. (Deuteronomy 7:6, 8).

God also chooses places and people. God declared: I have chosen Jerusalem that my name may be there, and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel. (2 Chronicles 6:6). Some years later, God would choose Solomon to build His temple in Jerusalem. Be careful now, for the Lord has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary; be strong and do it. (1 Chronicles 28:10). As one reads about God's elections in the Bible, you soon learn that what is so amazing about God's choosing is that never are the candidates even remotely qualified for the job or the places uniquely special. God's election is always made purely on the basis of His grace and mercy; and it is God's election that makes the person fit for the task and creates the distinctiveness of the place.

This aspect of God's gracious election is portrayed most significantly in His choosing us to receive forgiveness and eternal life. That happens in Christ Jesus, through whom God has chosen us to receive His grace, mercy, favor and love. St. Paul reminds us of God's gracious choosing when he writes: "Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. For He chose us in Him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in His sight. In love He predestined us for adoption to sonship through Jesus Christ, in accordance with His pleasure and will — to the praise of His glorious grace, which He has freely given us in the One He loves. In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace that He lavished on us." (Ephesians 1:3-8). You and I were not qualified or deserving to be chosen by God, but the sacrificial death of Jesus on the cross and His powerful resurrection brings us God's grace, places us in God's family and makes us recipients of God's eternal salvation.

Having been chosen by God in Christ Jesus, you and I respond in faith, and are called upon to live our lives in the vocation to which we have been elected. But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for His own possession, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light. (1 Peter 2:9). As God's elected people, you and I have the privilege and joy of sharing our faith with others and living our lives for the good of those around us. The Apostle Peter reminds us: Make every effort to add to your faith, goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; and to godliness, mutual affection; and to mutual affection, love. ... Therefore, my brothers and sisters, make every effort to confirm your calling and election. For if you do these things, you will never stumble, and you will receive a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. (2 Peter 1:5-7, 10-11).

On November 8th, I will exercise my right, privilege and freedom to vote. I'm still deciding which candidate will make the best leader and so receive my support. However, as I mark the box beside their name and cast my ballot, I will remember that in God's election you and I have been chosen by Him to receive His mercy, grace, love and eternal life in His Son, Jesus!

Riddle

What did zero say to eight?

A TRAVELER COMING HOME

Written by member Ricky Engstrom

*A traveler ventured forth one day,
Upon a long and winding road.
With faith and trust to lead the way
And at a slow and steady pace.
In cold of storm, in warmth of sun,
He journeyed on from place to place
And gained some value from each one.
Until at last, on quiet night
He climbed a hill's soft rounding crest
And saw a single light
That seemed to promise peace and rest
And following its glow
He came upon the house in which it shone.
A voice inside called out his name
And told him he was truly home.*

Home at King

Staff
Meet Tia Augustine

Tia Augustine received King's Employee Achievement Award at the Employee Recognition Event on July 27th, 2016. Tia has worked for WVH-King for the past 3 years. She worked as an LPN for 1 year while going to school at Fox Valley Tech. She then became an RN and worked for 1 year in this role. Tia then received her certification to be an MDS Coordinator and has been working in this role for the past year.

Tia has had a tremendous role in the implementation of Point Click Care. She was going to be the backup for the system, but when an unexpected situation came about, Tia jumped right in, taking a lead role in the implementation of this system. Tia has spent numerous hours researching and learning the system inside and out. She has helped to build the groundwork behind the scenes and continues to answer staff questions, train people, and tweak the system making it the best it can be for King. She has also assisted Union Grove in their implementation as well. Tia maintained her regular workload while taking on these additional duties and she remains very positive and upbeat when encountering challenges along the way. She is a tremendous asset to our team here at King and the impact of her time and effort will pay off for our members and staff in the future as we will have a quality product in the end.

In Tia's spare time, she enjoys reading books, watching movies, relaxing by the water and spending time with her children watching them grow and enjoy life. Tia enjoys her job at King. She especially enjoys her "amazing co-workers and knowing how much effort they all put into their job to ensure the members have what they need and are well cared for." She also enjoys the members here at King.

"They are always a joy to visit with and to hear their stories of life and loved ones reminds me daily of how precious life is."

Thank you Jeanette Golke for your 40 years of time and dedication to the Home. Your hard work and efforts are so greatly appreciated.

Patrick Meyer, Jeanette Golke and Jeanne Peskie.

"Congratulations on your 40 years of service to the state of Wisconsin. Thank you for your time and dedication to the members, staff, volunteers and visitors who live, work and frequent the Wisconsin Veterans Home. Your service is greatly appreciated."

~ Commandant Jim Knight

Jeanette has been a fixture in the department. She works day in and day out, while coping with frequent change, to ensure the areas she cares for remain clean, comfortable and safe spaces the members can call home.

~ Custodial Services Program Supervisor Patrick Meyer

I have worked with Jeanette for 35 of her 40 years. Jeanette is an asset to the WVH – working many of her years on the Special Care Unit – where she is a special person who is very kind and understanding of the members she serves.

~ Custodial Services Supervisor Jeanne Peskie

The Library has added several books to its permanent collection. Following are some of those books.

The Lincoln Lawyer by Michael Connelly

Mickey Haller, a criminal defense attorney, operates out of the backseat of his Lincoln Town Car! He defends all types: bikers, con artists, drug dealers, you name it. He does not concern himself with guilt or innocence, but rather concentrates on negotiation and manipulation. Well, once in a while, it might be about justice.

Haller's perspective begins to change once he is hired to defend a high-paying client who is accused of attacking a woman he picked up in a bar. Looks like a really simple case, until someone close to Mickey is murdered, after which Mickey realizes he needs to bring all of his skills to bear – this time, to save his own life.

Alex Cross by James Patterson

While enjoying a family celebration, Detective Alex Cross is pulled aside and informed that a beloved relative has been found brutally murdered. As Alex begins the investigation into her murder, he discovers she was involved in one of Washington's wildest scenes. She was also not this killer's only victim.

Follow Alex and his girlfriend Detective Brianna Stone as they delve into a very high-powered and very dangerous world of high society. They find that this particular world will do anything to keep their dark secrets safe.

The Double Agents by W.E.B. Griffin and William E. Butterworth IV

How can the Office of Strategic Services convince Hitler and the Axis powers that the allied invasion of the European continent will NOT take place on France's beaches? "Wild Bill" Donovan's men have some ideas, but they need to make use of double agents to put their plans into effect. Of course, such agents can prove to be unreliable, "so the deceptions require layer upon layer of intrigue, and all it will take is one slip to send the whole thing tumbling down like a house of cards."

Black Ops by W.E.B. Griffin

Presidential Agent Charley Castillo is notified on Christmas Day that one of his reporters/agents in Europe has been brutally murdered. This reporter had been quietly snooping into German and Russian thieves thought to be involved in the Iraqi Oil-for-Food scandal. Next, Charley is contacted by the director of National Intelligence – telling him of 2 more murders, an Austrian couple serving as CIA deep cover assets since WWII, have been found strangled by stainless-steel garrotes! Their bodies were discovered in a park in Vienna.

Within hours, Castillo learns of two other assassination attempts: one against a U.S. Secret Service Special Agent and his wife in Philadelphia, and the other against a commandante and his wife in Buenos Aires!

As Castillo and his group of troubleshooters delve into these events, they discover that none of these activities were coincidental. They also discover that Charley is likely the next target!

Switcheroo by Olivia Goldsmith

This book offers an interesting twist to how a wife goes about getting revenge when she finds out her husband is having an affair. Sylvie Schiffer has a life most women dream about: a successful husband with a lucrative business, gorgeous home, 2 wonderful children. The only thing missing is the spark of romance. Then Sylvie discovers her husband Bob is having a steamy affair with Marla. Even more hurtful is that if Marla was 10 years older and 15 pounds lighter, she could pass for Sylvie's twin!

Now as badly as Sylvie wants romance back in her marriage, Marla wants a husband of her own. Believe it or not, the 2 gals end up working together to teach Bob a lesson.

Life Without Parole by Clare O'Donohue

(A Kate Conway mystery)

Following the death of her ex-husband, television producer Kate Conway is finally seeing her life return to normal. Then she is offered a chance to produce a documentary about "lifers" in a state prison. At the same time, she is asked to produce a reality show about the opening of a new restaurant – one that is backed by her dead husband's mistress!

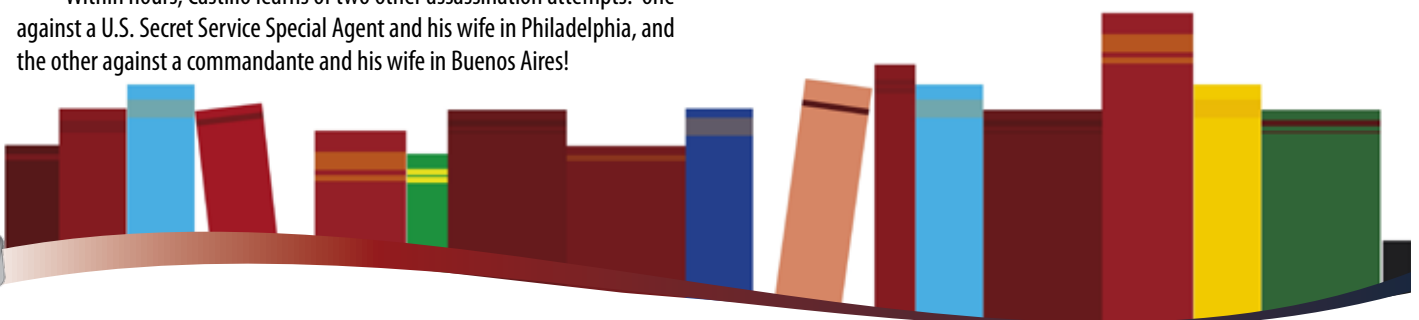

One of the restaurant's investors is murdered and the chief suspect is Vera (the mistress.) Kate finds herself trying to solve the case – by turning to the minds of death row killers!

Sweet Revenge by Diane Mott Davidson

Goldy Schulz is excited to be catering a holiday breakfast for the staff of the Aspen Meadows Library. Her menu lists such items as Great Expectations Grapefruit, Chuzzlewit Cheese Pie, and Bleak House Bars! Little did she know the menu would also include a large helping of murder!!

While setting up for the breakfast, Goldy spots a lady lurking between the rows of books. The lady looks remarkably like Sandee Brisbane – THE Sandee Brisbane who had killed Goldy's ex-husband and who was supposedly dead herself!

Next, the body of Drew Wellington, a former district attorney, is found in a corner of the library. Stashed in his clothing is a map worth thousands of dollars. This leads Goldy into the dangerous, double-crossing world of high-end map dealing. And Sandee keeps "making an appearance."

Recognizing Wisconsin Veterans Home at King Volunteer

Meet Christine Spreda

"I would like to nominate Christine (Chris) Spreda. She is in Stordock Hall religiously. She always has a smile and a good rapport with the members. She is reliable, and we can always count on her for help when we need her. She is very much appreciated in our building and throughout camp. She puts in long volunteer days to assist staff and members in the Ainsworth Hall Namaste room, and then spends time at Stordock hall. She is a priceless volunteer."

Danny, Senior Activity Therapist, Stordock Hall.

"One accomplishment I am proud of is that I received my 400 hour pin at this year's Volunteer Banquet. One of the things I love, is volunteering in the Namaste Room on Tuesday mornings. The members in the Namaste Room might not communicate with words, but I can see the peace and contentment on their faces.

I would love to encourage new volunteers to come to King and experience the personal rewards that come with sharing your skills with the veterans here on camp."

Chris Spreda

Chris has been a volunteer with the WI Veterans Home at King since Jan. 2015. Chris is a wonderful and valuable addition to the King family, bringing 40 plus years of experience serving in the medical field. It is evident Chris has spent most of her life caring for people of all ages and from all walks of life. She is always positive and smiling, shows enthusiasm and compassion in giving back to the members and staff of King. From the Members and Staff of King, thank you Christine for sharing your skills and talents with us and for the dedication and kindness you give everyone at the WI Veterans Home.
