Shannon Hardel
Interim Commandant
Wisconsin Veterans Home
at King

I often think how fortunate I am to live in Wisconsin. I enjoy the changing seasons, especially the miraculous awakening of spring as plant life comes alive with color, migratory birds return to the area and the last vestiges of winter fade.

Wisconsin offers unlimited recreational activities and a beautiful landscape in which to enjoy these endeavors. In particular, I feel blessed to live and work in Waupaca County. I have worked at the Wisconsin Veterans Home – King since 2003 and can say it is a wonderful gem in this rural community. Situated on over 300 acres with Rainbow Lake as the backdrop and housing a post office, bowling alley, library, café, museum (re-opening this fall), and medical services including x-ray, lab, pharmacy and provider specialists, among other amenities, I can emphatically state, King is like no other.

As spring unfolds, the Veterans Home at King is moving into fast gear to prepare for upcoming events. King's largest event of the year, Open House, is scheduled for Sunday, May 21, 2017, from 10:00AM – 2:30PM. This is a community event and we encourage all to come and enjoy this family-oriented event and discover this beautiful gem many call "home." Open House offers, food, entertainment, boat rides, an old car show, tours, activities for children, and much more.

I hope to see many of you at Open House this year. In the meantime, enjoy spring's glorious awakening.

Yours,
Shannon L. Hardel

Season

*I made it another season,
 And I don't know the exact reason.
 But God has a plan for us all.
 Enjoy the good times and have a ball.*

*There are many people that have it harder.
 They are just worried about the food in the larder.
 Or of keeping their job.
 Looking disgustingly at the slob.*

*Times are rough on most.
 So don't think you are the only one grinding at the post.
 But there are good times too if you know what to do.
 Don't fret that scratch mark on your shoe.*

*Or of the little troubles that appear.
 Think kindly of your dear.
 All the little bad things will go away.
 For that is the way.*

*Life is a collection of memories we make.
 Don't let the bad times take.
 No one knows how long they have to live.
 But you should always give.*

“Death, Burial, and Resurrection” Part II

This month we will finish what we started last month regarding the death, burial, and resurrection of our Savior Jesus.

Martha's response...John 11:27(NIV): “Yes, Lord,” she told Him, “I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God who was to come into the world.”

Martha was claiming Jesus to be the One...the Messiah who was prophesied about so many years before, and that Jesus was the fulfillment of the One the Jewish people were waiting for...that God Himself was now with His people, incarnate...in the flesh...and for good reason!

After Jesus' emotional encounter (Jesus wept) with Mary and the Jews who followed Mary, Jesus had a miracle to perform...friends to serve, with the desire that all who hear and see what Jesus was going to say and do, would believe in Him.

So they took away the stone. Then Jesus looked up and said, “Father, I thank you that you have heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I said this for the benefit of the people standing here, that they may believe that you sent me. When He said this, Jesus called in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out! (John 11: 41-43 NIV)

And Lazarus did come out of the tomb...Oh, what a day!

Yes, many of the Jews who witnessed Lazarus' resurrection believed and put their faith in Jesus.

This miracle also began the journey of Jesus' fulfillment of why He came for sinful men...to be the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!(John 1:29 NIV). Within days, the Pharisees and Chief Priests were meeting together to scheme a plan to kill Jesus...to rid society of this One who claimed, “I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you really knew me, you would know my Father as well. From now on, you do know Him and have seen Him” (John 14:6-7 NIV)...claiming to be God Himself.

In the eyes and ears of the religious leaders, Jesus was... “the great blasphemer.”

I have heard it said, “that God will use even the works of sinful man to accomplish His purposes.”

Within weeks of Lazarus' resurrection, Jesus was hailed as the King of Israel and then within days, Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane to His Father. Jesus was then betrayed and arrested, abandoned by His Disciples, denied by Peter, questioned, ridiculed, and unjustly tried by the religious elite. Then being beaten without mercy, a crown of thorns placed into his head, He was spit upon, mocked by the soldiers, and sentenced to death by way of the Cross.

The journey of the Cross continues...the reason that Jesus came is becoming reality.

The carrying by Jesus and Simon the Cyrene of that heavy Cross to Golgotha, to Jesus' lying down...willingly on that Cross, to the pounding of the nails in the precious hands and feet of Jesus...to the raising of the Cross as it is dropped in place for Jesus to be crucified and to suffer on.

Alzheimer's Poem

Do not ask me to remember
 Do not try to make me understand.
 Let me rest and know you're with me.
 Kiss my cheek and hold my hand.
 I'm confused beyond your concept.

I am sad and sick and lost.
 All I know is that I need you to be with me at all cost.

Do not lose your patience with me.

Do not scold or curse my cry.
 I can't help the way I'm acting,
 Can't be different though I try.

Just remember that I need you,

That the best of me is gone.
 Please don't fail to stand beside me,
 Love me till my life is done.

And suffer... “The Kings of the Jews” did.

Jesus fulfilled, the words spoken, by the Prophet Isaiah, “But He was pierced for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by His wounds we are healed” (Isaiah 53:5 NIV).

It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour, for the Sun stopped shining. And the curtain of the Temple was torn in two. Jesus called out with a loud voice, “Father into your hands, I commit my spirit.” When He had said this, He breathed His last. (Luke 24:44-46 NIV)

It is now finished....the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world has been slain.

Praise God that “His Story” does not end here....Luke 24:1-8(NIV)....On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, “Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; He has risen! Remember how he told you, while He was with you in Galilee: The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful man, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.”

Then they remembered His words.....For God so loved the world (you) that he gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through Him. (John 3:16-17 NIV)

Lord bless you with the experiential knowledge of His love for you, as you personally reflect on the Death, Burial, and Resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Wicked Prey by John Sandford

The Republicans are coming to St. Paul for their convention, and the police are anticipating more than a little trouble. There is a petty thief nursing a grudge against the police for putting him in a wheelchair; his grudge has boiled into full psychotic steam! Then there are your average professional stick-up men that prey on politicians in hopes of lucrative opportunities.

John Sandford – “one of the most consistently entertaining crime writers working today.”

The Hobbit by J. R. R. Tolkien

Bilbo's peaceful life is disrupted when Gandalf the wizard scratches a sign in his door. Soon the hobbit is besieged by 13 ravenous dwarves! The next thing he knows, Bilbo is off on a mission to reclaim a stolen treasure from the dragon Smaug. This quest leads him to a creature named Gollum and a very magical ring. . .

The Chance by Karen Kingsbury

Teenage Ellie and her best friend Nolan wrote letters to each other, buried them in a metal box under an old oak tree, and vowed to return eleven years later to again read the letters. Then they went their separate ways. Ellie moved from Georgia to California, and life has taken a bit of a toll on her. As the eleven-year span draws to a close, she finds herself with no faith, and spending much of her day caring for her little girl, trying to make ends meet.

She sometimes catches a glimpse of Nolan on TV; he has become an NBA star! Nolan is well-known for his deep faith, but few know his own personal tragedies have fueled that faith and his athletic drive. “For both Ellie and Nolan, the coming date is more than just a childhood promise. It's the chance to make sense of it all – the chance to find out if it's ever too late to find love again.”

Plain Truth by Jodi Picoult

Ellie Hathaway is a Philadelphia defense attorney, enjoying a high-profile career and now offered the chance to make partner! But being single at age 39, and unsatisfied with her relationship, Ellie decides to “chuck it all” and takes off for a stay at her great aunt's home in the small town of Paradise.

Paradise is home to a large Amish community. Recently, a dead infant was found in the barn of one of the Amish farmers. The infant did not die of natural causes, and the investigation has led to the 18-year-old unmarried mother, Katie Fisher. Ellie decides to defend the young girl, but finds herself in a clash of wills with a client who does not want to be defended! Ellie soon begins to understand the difficulties of the lives of those who choose to live “Plain.”

Motherland by Maria Hummel

This one will be hard to put down. Follow the life of one German family during World War II. Frank Kappus, a reconstructive surgeon, lost his beloved wife in childbirth. A few months later, he marries a young woman who must look after the baby and Frank's 2 grieving sons. Frank has to leave because he has been drafted into medical military service. The young woman, Liesl, tries to keep the children fed (dwindling food supplies), safe from the constant Allied air attacks, and protected against the flood of desperate refugees coming to town.

This novel was inspired by stories from the author's father and his German childhood, and letters between her grandparents that were hidden in an attic wall for fifty years.

The Child Garden by Catriona McPherson

Eden was “an alternative school for happy children.” But the school closed after one of its students committed suicide. Now it is a care home and sits sadly with grounds neglected and overgrown. Gloria Harkness has a son living in the home, and she lives next door so she can visit him often.

Gloria welcomes a childhood friend who shows up at her door one day. The man has a strange story about being stalked by a girl from Eden. The girl wants to meet him at the site of the suicide! “Only then, the dead begin to speak – it was murder, they say.”
