WDVA may solely use a donation for a lawful purpose consistent with the statutory framework applicable to other state expenditures.

For Federal tax purposes, a portion of your payment may be deductible as a charitable donation. (see 26 USC § 170). Please consult your tax advisor to determine the effect of your donation on your situation, as individual circumstances vary. Upon request, WDVA will provide you a receipt or acknowledgment that includes the following information: (1) the date the donation was received, (2) a statement that WDVA did not provide any goods or services to the donor for the amount given, (3) WDVA's name, and (4) the amount of the donation.
